

Call for entries

12. Zuckerbäcker Awards

The titles "Vienna Junior Cakemaster 2020" and "Vienna Cakemaster 2020" will be awarded this year at the 119th ZuckerBäckerball on 16 January 2020 in the Hofburg in Vienna.

For the 12th time, creative young artists and talented confectioners will go into the battle for the coveted titles. In order to bring the guests a little closer to the masterpieces, the cakes will be on display to the ball guests throughout the event.

Further information on the 119th ZuckerBäckerball can be found at www.zuckerbaeckerball.com

Voting will take place anonymously via of the candidate's number. And the evaluation criteria for the jury are as follows: Abidance of the call for entries / task description, creativity, use of the ingredients, implementation of the theme, and the general level of difficulty of the showpiece.

The award ceremony takes place at midnight in the Festsaal in the Hofburg.

This year's Zuckerbäcker Awards comes under the theme:

"Comics" (aka comic books)

Apprentices: A 3D showpiece is to be completed and material can be selected freely, but must be edible. Any colour is acceptable; the total height can range from 40 cm to 100 cm maximum (including the cake itself). The maximum area for the cake board, the cake itself the upper design is 50 cm x 50 cm.

Pasty chefs: A 3D showpiece is to be completed and material can be selected freely, but must be edible. Any colour is acceptable; the total height can range from 40 cm to 100 cm maximum (including the cake itself). The maximum area for the cake board, the cake itself the upper design is 50 cm x 50 cm. In order not to have to cut the showpiece, it is necessary for all chefs to also make one cake with a maximum diameter of 15 cm, which is the same as the showpiece.

The following are eligible to apply:

1. All pastry apprentices from the third year onwards
2. Confectioners (assistants and masters), with employment in a company affiliated to the "Landesinnung Wien der Lebensmittelgewerbe". As far as the number of registrations is concerned, the organiser may make exceptions to the restriction.

Evaluation takes place solely in these two categories. No group work is allowed. Participation is limited to three competitions.

We would be delighted to welcome you as a participant in the Zuckerbäcker Awards.
